PHEASANTS NOT SO PLentiful

HUNTERS FAIL TO FIND FIELDS FULL OF BIRDS.

ONE ARREST FOR VIOLATION

Nimrods Beat Bushes and Tramp Through Tall Uncut But Do Not Get Many Birds—Law's Restrictions Interfere With Good Shots.

Reports generally are to the effect that pheasants are not so numerous as hoped for. There were many hunters in the fields yesterday, but few bagged the limit, five.

But one arrest was made for violation of the law. Deputy C. C. Bryant brought in "John Doe" on a charge of having female pheasants in his possession. He pleaded guilty and Justice Lane assessed him $25 and costs.

The deputies are reported as having been rather alert. They inspected a number of vehicles and hunting bags, and in an instance created some bad feeling. One of them stopped County Surveyor F. M. Wilkes who, was driving along the road in pursuit of his duties. He had no gun, but his wagon was searched. Mr. Wilkes thinks this nothing less than tyranny and he voices his protest in no mistakable language.

It is reported that there was considerable violation of that section of the law declaring against shooting from the road. Firing from vehicles in the road is strictly forbidden but some of this was done.

M. T. Burnett got the limit yesterday. He is inclined to feel that there are no more birds than there were last year. He hunted over the burned area south of Corvallis and ran into a deputy every ten feet. Mr. Burnett thinks that big fire destroyed many young birds as well as old ones. Because of inability to tell whether the bird was a male or female he missed many good shots.

E. E. Wilson and M. H. Bauer, who went to the Jess Foster place and hunted, failed to bag as many as the law permits. Mr. Wilson says the Foster place has ever been counted the best hunting place in this section, but yesterday the pheasants were not in evidence.

READING CLUB GETS BUSY

The Tuesday afternoon Reading Club has printed programs for the year's work. The list of subjects to be presented and discussed indicates the intellectuality and ideals of the members and proclaims this club to be a potent factor in the culture and general uplift of Corvallis. Each month a program of length is carried through, the main topics being as follows:

October—"Expositions, Educational Value," Mrs. Minnie Lee.

November—"Paper, Standards in Education, With Some Consideration of Their Relation to Industrial Training," Miss Sarah Jacobs.

"Conversation, What About Fletcherism?" Leader, Miss Margaret Snell.

December—"Dickens as an Author," Mrs. D. Osborne.

"Conversation, The Novel as a Factor in Education," Leader, Mrs. W. A. Wells.

January—"Paper, Misdirected Education," Mrs. Rose Selling.

"Conversation, Children's Reading as a Factor in Education," Leader, Miss Pauline Kline.

February—"Talk, Subject Selected," Ida M. Kidder.

March—"Oregon Writers," "Early Oregon History," Mrs. W. A. Wells.

"Book Review, Oregon Authors."

April—"Conversation, Corvallis Beautiful," Leader, Mrs. W. G. Davis.

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club are:

Mesdames F. Berchtold, B. A. Cathey, W. G. Davis, J. B. Horner, Minnie Lee, David Osborne, W. A. Wells, M. S. Woodcock, Rose Selling, J. F. Yates, Misses Bertha Davis, Pauline Kline, Sarah Jacobs, Margaret Snell.

The officers are: President Bertha Davis; Vice-President Mrs. B. A. Cathey; Secretary Mrs. W. G. Davis.

FALLS CITY'S PUBLICITY FUND

Falls City business men in five minutes Thursday raised $1200 for publicity work. It is expected that this sum will be increased to $2000 or probably $2500.

The mass meeting was well attended and enthusiasm was manifested in many speeches. William C. Wells and E. D. Whitney, representatives of the publicity department of the O. R. & N. Company, were present and delivered addresses. Among the local business interests subscribing liberally toward the advertising fund were the Salem, Falls City & Western Railroad, $250; Falls City Lumber Company, $200. Walter L. Fooze subscribed $120, and many other business men added $60 subscriptions.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Died—Saturday morning, Oct. 16, Wm. Whitney, at his home two miles north of the city, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. The cause of Mr. Whitney's death was paralysis, the last severe attack coming on him three days ago. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, at the home of his son, Forest Whitney, interment to be in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

WANTED—To rent on shares a fully equipped dairy farm with eight to twelve cows, within four miles of shipping station. Inquire or address, C. F. Hotchkiss, Corvallis, Ore. 10-8-31w

FIVE MILES OF WALK TO BE LAID

COUNCIL DECIDES THAT VARIOUS STREETS SHOULD BE IMPROVED.

MUCH IN CEMENT DISTRICT

Notices Now Being Sent Out—Bad Walks to Be Replaced, and Walks Laid Where There Are None at Present and on Both Sides of Street.

A total of five miles of sidewalk has just been ordered by the City Council. Most of this walk is in the cement district, though some is in far outlying sections. The council wants Sixth and Seventh streets, in particular, paved from one end to the other. Municipal Judge Denman is now preparing the notices. The Street Committee has been investigating this matter for some time and has decided to get rid of the bad wooden walks, if possible. In many places there is a wooden walk on but one side of the street, and the Street Committee wants cement walk on both sides. Until a list is made out it is impossible to detail the property affected.

The officials have no quarrel with any individual but it is the intent to test the ordinances.

OFFICIALS GET WALK LAID

During last winter F. C. Davis and a Mr. Wygant were ordered to construct new sidewalks in front of their property on the east side of Second street between Van Buren and Harrison. After more or less unpleasantness and an attempt to build a wooden walk in this cement district, Mr. Wygant finally gave in and laid a cement walk. Mr. Davis neglected the matter and finally sold his lot to L. G. Pickel. This resulted in further misunderstanding, as Mr. Pickel claims to have bought the lot on an agreement that Mr. Davis would meet assessments against the property. The city wants that cement walk built so Mr. Davis was brought before the Judge on a charge of violating the city ordinance. After the matter was gone into, Mr. Davis indicated that he understood matters differently and agreed that if the charge against him were dropped he would build the cement walk. He deposited a $20 forfeit and this was agreed to.

The officials have no quarrel with any individual but it is the intent to test the ordinances.

HORSE SHOT

"Mr. C. L. Shaw, residing near this city, is minus a fine $150 horse, as the result of a careless hunter before the season opened" says the Albany Democrat. Some one filled the shoulders of the animal full of shot and he had to be dispatched. Such carelessness is reprehensible, and it is to be regretted the guilty hunter is not known.

VIOLATED CITY SPEED LAWS

J. C. DONOVAN CHARGED WITH FAST RIDING.

WILL BE TRIED ON MONDAY

While in City Recently, Tallow Buyer Hits Up Pretty Good Lick on Machine and Gets Officials on His Trail—Returns to Face Charge.

A warrant is out for the arrest of J. C. Donovan, buyer of hides and tallow, who is charged with violating the speed ordinances of Corvallis. Donovan was using a motorcycle on the streets here this week and officers insist that he frequently traversed even the principal streets at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour. They tried to get Donovan here, but he went to Albany, and only his machine was secured there. The officers say they will get him, if they have to issue a state warrant and carry the matter to the circuit court.

The ordinances of Corvallis say eight miles an hour is the limit at which any vehicle shall traverse the streets. Officials say this ordinance is being violated frequently by one or two local people who either do not know the law or else are careless. They take no pleasure in holding up local men of good standing, but the ordinances must be enforced. It might be well for all those handling machines to be a little careful.

Donovan Return

Since the above was put into type Mr. Donovan has come to Corvallis to meet the charge against him. While at Salem or Independence he learned that official here wanted him, so came in this morning. He put up $50 for his appearance before a justice Monday morning.

"THE SPOILERS" COMING SOON

One of the most notable successes on the American stage in recent years is Rex Beach's sterling story of Alaska, "The Spoilers," which comes to this city next Saturday. It is a play that has no frills but presents faithful pictures of life as it existed in Nome in the year 1900. The story of "The Spoilers" has been read by thousands of people and the play follows the incidents of the book with care. Mr. McRae is sending an excellent company, the cast including Miss Margaret Oswald. The press throughout the West gives the company most flattering comments.

EXCURSION TO NEWPORT

On Sunday, October 17, the Corvallis & Eastern will run an excursion to Newport, leaving Corvallis at 8 a. m., and returning leaves Yaquina at 6 p. m. Fare $1.50 round trip.
